Dear Jeffrey:

Thank you so much for all that you poured into kids' lives last month at our annual Break Out Middle School conference. It was a privilege to work with you. Your life stories, your Scripture connections and the challenges you gave to students hit right where they needed to in each of the general sessions.

Thank you also for staying right on target with our theme throughout the weekend. I felt like we were on the same page from the start of our conversations through to the event itself. You asked some great questions and helped me further develop our theme as we mapped out each session.

If someone were to ask me, "Would you bring Jeffrey back?" I would wholeheartedly answer, "Yes!" The feedback we received from students and youth leaders alike was overwhelmingly positive. I felt you really connected well with kids and gave us a good balance of humor and seriousness where needed.

Thanks again for being part of our ministry team at Break Out. God bless you.

In Christ,

Dave Lenehan, Conference Director
