To Whom It May Concern,

Just over eight months ago we were strongly wrestling with who we wanted to bring to our city to be our featured speaker at a parenting seminar, three school assemblies, and a three-session sexual purity retreat for 7th-12th graders. We knew there was a high standard set from the previous two years we hosted this large event, which made our decision extremely difficult. Our team made the decision to bring Jeffrey Dean to our city. We couldn't be happier with the decision.

What Jeffrey brought to the table was unique. As a faith based organization we needed a speaker who would bring the message of sexual purity to parents and teens from a Biblical perspective. We also needed a speaker who could bring the message of sexual purity to local schools from a secular perspective. Jeffrey was able to provide a very challenging and engaging message for each audience based on the requirements we laid out before him. He nailed it!

Many speakers provide a canned speech they have given to multiple audiences over a period of time. One thing we really appreciated about Jeffrey was the time and energy he put into tailoring each message to our specific needs. Jeffrey truly wants to speak truth into the lives of young people and parents based on the unique situation the audience finds themselves in. Before each school assembly Jeffrey would speak to the principal and ask about any particular issues the students were dealing with. He would then incorporate what he heard from the principal into his message.

As the main event coordinator I found working with Jeffrey and his team an extremely positive experience. Jeffrey's ministry partners were always very helpful and punctual with responses to my questions. I knew I could count on them to get me exactly what I needed to properly prepare for Jeffrey's arrival. I was also pleasantly surprised to receive a number of calls and emails from Jeffrey himself to pray about his time with us as well as to properly prepare himself for what we desired. I couldn't have asked for a better experience as the event coordinator.

Our overall evaluation of Jeffrey is off the charts. Students loved him. Parents appreciated him. Administrators applauded him. We can't recommend him any more highly as a faith-based speaker and as a school assembly presenter.
