

Relationships Under Construction

Teaching youth the blueprint for strong future families

RelationshipsUnderConstruction.com & MissTheMess.com

Relationships Under Construction has scheduled Jeffrey Dean in more than 100 schools in the past decade with great success. Jeffrey brings a powerful, always fresh, penetrating word for students and influencing adults. His message is cutting edge, piercing even the most hardened heart as evidenced by the number of students who want to speak to him. His assemblies allow all students and teachers in the school to hear the truth at the same time which allows for great impact and supports our classroom presentations. Jeffrey spoke at the RUC fundraising event this year and giving was up by 12 percent.

Sincerely,

Catherine Wood
