

THE VERY BEST

OUT-OF-THIS-WORLD QUESTIONS TO

Kick-Start Conversations

WITH MY KIDS

Your kids are probably the most important people on the planet to you.

So, how well do you know kids? Probably pretty well, right? You most likely know their favorite foods, the time of day when it's best to talk, and not to talk, about important issues. You know their study habits. You know when they are happy and sad. Hopefully, you also know their friends, their social media friends, and so much more about them!

However, your kids are growing and maturing, their minds are developing and changing. And, their world views are taking shape and often re-taking shape as they are the recipients of a constantly shifting culture.

To continue building a strong family, conversations with your kids will be essential. Asking them questions can be a great way to spark conversations. Not only can questions get them talking, they can also help you learn more about the passions, struggles, fears, and dreams.
